

Lake Alice has this program because of a grant through Lincoln County. Working with students from Treehaven has given us volunteers on weekends that would be almost impossible to get on our own. These students are also informing and educating boaters about AIS.

Please be courteous and thank the students for their services.

Neil Pietenpol